

and safety effects; distributive impacts; and equity). A regulatory impact analysis (RIA) must be prepared for major rules with economic effects of $100 million or more annually. We have determined this to be a major rule. It provides $400 million to a specialized category of low-income Medicare beneficiaries.

The RFA requires agencies to analyze options for regulatory relief for small entities. For purposes of the RFA, States and individuals are not considered to be small entities.

This proposed notice would allocate, among the States, Federal funds to provide Medicaid payment for Medicare Part B premiums for QIs. The total amount of Federal funds available during a Federal fiscal year and the formula for determining individual State allotments are specified in the law. Because the formula for determination of State allotments is specified in the statute, there were no other options to be considered. Therefore, we have applied the statutory formula for the State allotments except for the use of specified data. Because the data specified in the law were not available, we have used comparable data from the U.S. Census Bureau on the number of possible QIs in the States, as described in detail in the January 26, 1998 Federal Register. Since the statutory formula calls for an estimate of individuals who could qualify for QI status rather than the number of individuals who actually have that status, the exact numbers of those individuals will always be uncertain. These new allotments for FY 2002 incorporate the latest data from the U.S. Census Bureau from 1999 to 2001, as specified in the footnotes to the preceding table.

We believe the statutory provisions that would be implemented in this proposed notice would have a positive effect on States and individuals. Federal funding at the 100 percent matching rate is available for Medicare cost-sharing for Medicare Part B premium payments for selected QIs, and a greater number of low-income Medicare beneficiaries would be eligible to have their Medicare Part B premiums paid under Medicaid.

Section 1102(b) of the Act requires us to prepare a regulatory impact analysis for any notice that may have a significant impact on the operations of a substantial number of small rural hospitals. Such an analysis must conform to the provisions of section 603 of the RFA. For purposes of section 1102(b) of the Act, we define a small rural hospital as a hospital that is located outside a Metropolitan Statistical Area and has fewer than 100 beds.

We are not preparing analyses for either the RFA or section 1102(b) of the Act, because we have determined and certify that this proposed notice would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities or a significant impact on the operations of a substantial number of small rural hospitals.

Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995, Public Law 104-4, also requires that agencies assess anticipated costs and benefits before issuing any proposed rule and a final rule preceded by a proposed rule that may result in an expenditure in any one year by State, local, or tribal governments, in the aggregate, or any the private sector, or $110 million or more. This notice would have no consequential effect on the governments mentioned or on the private sector.

We have reviewed this notice under the threshold criteria of Executive Order 13132, Federalism. Because this proposed notice would simply provide notice of funding ceilings, as determined under the statute, we have determined that this proposed notice would not significantly affect the rights, roles, and responsibilities of States.

In accordance with the provisions of Executive Order 12866, this proposed notice with comment period was reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).
